Original Compositions To Highlight Concert

Highlighting this year's Spring Fling Concert will be two original compositions to be premiered by the Torrance Hometown Singers and the Joslyn Youth Chorus.

Open to the public, the Spring Fling will be presented at 2 p.m. Sunday at the Joslyn Center, 3335 Torrance Blvd. There is no admission charge.

"If God," a musical composition by Marjorie Jones, will be sung by Syro Gold, a member of the Torrance Hometown Singers. Miss Jones is a renowned composer and member of Roger Wagner Corale.

Ken Halvorsen has specially written a composition entitled "Lone Man on the Totem Pole" to be sung by the Hometown Singers.

Diane Rabut of the Young Americans, who has recently appeared on the Ed Sullivan Show, will be spotlighted during the concert in a guest performance.

Modern dancers from Joslyn dance classes will join the two Torrance musical groups for their spring presentation. The Torrance Hometown Singers is an adult chorus of Torrance residents who make special appearances at various recreation activities throughout the year.

The Joslyn Youth Chorus is open to Torrance youngsters for fun and enjoyment through their singing. Both groups are sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department.

Leetham Endorsed By Unions

Carlos Villalobos, former Cannery Workers Union of the Pacific official and labor chairman for a Citizens Committee Supporting the Candidacy of Jud Leetham for Office 21, Judge of the Superior Court, has declared:

"Few have been surprised at the endorsements received from cultural, civic, fraternal, and other groups among our voters. It is gratifying to note, however, an increasing interest in Jud's candidacy within the labor movement."

Teamsters Joint Council No. 42, covering all teamster unions in Southern California, also endorsed Jud Leetham's candidacy. He already has received the support of Retail Clerks Union, Local 770.

Graham R. Mitchell, chairman of the executive committee of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, announced today, "It gives me great pleasure to announce our endorsement of Jud Leetham's candidacy for Superior Court judge, Office 21. This determination was made after careful consideration of his qualifications and many years of service in public life."
